THE "SLUGGERS" SHUT OUT. The Virginia Win the First Game—Nash Makes the Hit of the Season. The Active and the Virginia met yesterday afternoon for the first time on the ball-field here and played the first of an engagement of three games. The game was called at 5 o'clock, the visitors at the bat.

The weather in the morning and the continued cloudiness in the afternoon, a crowd numbering 1,000 to 1,200 had gathered to see the visitors, who had beaten the Virginia at Reading two games in one.

McGowan and Cullen formed the visitors' line-up, and the home team played a very fine game, while the visitors made a number of very ugly errors. Dugan's pitching was very effective. The visitors only hit him for four scattering hits.

Nash, however, of the honors of the day on heavy batting. He knocked the ball between center and right field in the first inning, which struck near the fence and bounded over, thus giving him a home run. At this point the entire crowd rose to their feet and cheered.

Wednesday night, July 3rd, the Ariei will make a moonlight excursion for the benefit of the Union-Station Methodist church. Every Monday and Friday there will be a picnic on May's Island.

Dr. Burton's Prize Poetry. Colonel A. P. Twitcheil, editor of the Gorham (N. H.) Mountaineer, who has two lovely lady printers named Ella R. Wood and Jennie Waters, offered a volume of the Reunion Poems, in blue and gilt, for the best rhyme on the names of the ladies.

Fourth-of-July Excursion Trains to Bon Air. To enable the people of Richmond to enjoy a pleasant day in the country, and also to participate in the various amusements that will occur at Bon Air on July 4th—chief of which will be music, dancing, and a fine display of fireworks—the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company will run excursion trains to and from Bon Air.
